WARREN COUNTY

Recreational use of Pennsylvania forests was discussed by State Secretary of Forests and Waters Maurice K. Goddard yesterday at Bradford. He said the lion's share of recreation facilities must be provided through private initiative and capital. Page One.

County Commissioner Blain Mead and Richard Brown, executive director of the local anti-poverty council, wage a battle of words on Page B1 today. The TMO carries both Mead's charges of "shocking waste" and Brown's reply that Mead is "ill-informed."

The Citizens Advisory Committee to the Warren Redevelopment Authority will meet Tuesday for the first time since it was reorganized last month. Page B1

PENNSYLVANIA

State Sen. Albert R. Pechan of Armstrong County has declared war on the State Welfare Department's youth development centers. He claims they are too expensive to operate and are country clubs for those assigned there. Page One.

THE NATION

President Johnson flew back to Texas yesterday from the hemispheric summit meeting in Uruguay. The results were generally good, especially in comparison to the President's recent trip to Asia. Page One.

Anti-Vietnam demonstrations are expected today simultaneously in New York City and San Francisco. Police officials in both cities are wary of possible rioting. Page One.

THE WORLD

U.S. Air Force planes accidentally bombed South Vietnamese troops early today killing 31 and wounding 40. This was the most serious accident since March 2. Page One.

An editorial in an East German newspaper yesterday led observers to believe there is some chance of talks between the East and West over the future of that nation. Page A7.

SPORTS

The Eisenhower track team will open its season today in the Indiana University of Pennsylvania Invitational meet. The Knights will take 26 men to the event. Leading contenders for the Blue and Gold will be Dick Hale, Gary Olson, John Wiltzie, Dan Larson, Martin Hoffer, Dave Burnett, Gary Dalrymple and Dave Van Cise. Page A5.

Frank Beard added a 68 to his opening round of 65 to take a three stroke lead in the Tournament of Champions at Las Vegas. There is a three-way tie for second among Jack Nicklaus, Doug Sanders and Dan Sikes. The day was marked by unusual happenings. Tom Nelpotte was disqualified and Billy Casper had an 11 on one hole. President Returns Home; Happy with Summit Meet

By MAX FRANKEL

(c) N.Y. Times News Service
PUNTA DEL ESTE—President Johnson in flying back yesterday from the pampa of South America to the hill country of Texas, may have received what is probably the happiest homecoming of his peripatetic presidency.

There were two reasons for the President's evident high spirits or, as he put it, "good heart."

The summit meeting of American chiefs of state has convinced him, he said, that the hemisphere is led by men determined to develop their nations and therefore worthy of U.S. support.

Perhaps even more important, however, was his pride in his own performance. His departure yesterday described leadership in the Americas as "a task not for sprinters" but for long distant runners," and with this journey to Uruguay Johnson established himself as surefooted on the diplomatic track.

It was a strange journey because probably no U.S. president had ever before flown so far to see so little and to be seen by so few. Five thousand miles from the White House as far away as the Kremlin—Johnson and his hemisphere colleagues were confined to a few seaside villas and to the cramped and blazingly lit conference hall, temporarily converted gambling casino, Johnson faced no crowds except those who crushed around him at official receptions. He could look from his house out over the Southern Atlantic, where U.S. ships kept him intimately in touch with his vast and personal communications net.

The rhetoric in Brazilian Portuguese, Haitian French and Latin American Spanish undoubtedly made this meeting a "foreign experience," but Johnson was no nearer to a truly alien environment than was the rhetoric to everyday concerns of the peoples represented at the conference.

Yet this very confinement helped to focus Johnson's objectives. For most of the rhetoric dealt with the necessity of turning good words into

Goddard Stresses Spread of Forests In Commonwealth

BY FRANKLIN R. HOFF

Dr. Maurice K. Goddard, state secretary of forests and waters, addressing the six-county timber resource symposium yesterday afternoon at Pennhills Club, Bradford, revealed that, in spite of the great urbanization of our population, Pennsylvania's forested areas are actually increasing rapidly.

"Pennsylvania is now 59 per cent forested," he reported, "since the nineteenth century our acreage of forestland has grown from about 13 million acres to 17 million out of a total surface area of almost 29 million acres. That our forested area will grow by several million acres more in the next decades is a certainty."

Goddard emphasized what he calls the "all purpose" concept of our Pennsylvania forest land, with emphasis on recreational use. He pointed to the pressures on this forest land, from the vast megalopolis from Boston to Norfolk on the Atlantic Coast; from Albany to Buffalo, to the north; Cleveland, Erie, Detroit, Youngstown, and Pittsburgh to the east; with Cumberland-Washington area on the south, representing more than half the entire population of the United States surrounding Pennsylvania, with access to its forests for recreation.

"Whether we appreciate it or not, this great forest heartland of Pennsylvania, I insist, is going to be the recreation area for most of these people in the future."

Bernie Wingert, Warren County Extension Agent, was toastmaster at the luncheon. Alleg-any National Forest Supervisor Lee Kelley and timber, wildlife and watershed management specialist Paul W. Sundheimer were key figures in panel discussions on the region's economic, cultural and social development of this region projected 15 years in the future, timber resources of the Warren-McKean-Potter-Forest-Elk-

Cameron region; effects of planning and zoning on timber resources and forest industry; and future character of the region's forest industry.

Kelly predicted steady increase in available timber and increased development of Pennsylvania's timber industries. He

U.S. Jets Bomb Friendly Troops

SAIGON (AP) — Two U. S. Air Force jets bombed South Vietnamese troops by mistake in early morning darkness today and Vietnamese headquarters said 41 soldiers were killed and 50 wounded seriously.

The U. S. Military Command said earlier that 20 South Vietnamese soldiers were killed and 41 wounded.

The jets, on a strike mission, dropped their bombs off target.

The bombing, the worst of its kind since two Air Force jets mistakenly hit a refugee-crammed village on March 2, occurred 23 miles northwest of the central coastal city of Qui Nhon, headquarters said.

Headquarters announced today that a U. S. Air Force F105 Thunderchief was shot down by ground fire over North Vietnam yesterday, but the pilot was rescued. It was the 504th aircraft lost over the North since air attacks began in early 1965.

In South Vietnam, two American helicopters were shot down by ground fire and a third damaged by a Claymore mine. No major ground fighting was reported in South Vietnam and bad weather curtailed bombing attacks against the North.

Today's mistaken bombing occurred about 23 miles north-east of Saigon.

A brief headquarters announcement said: "At 0140 today — Saturday — two F100 Super Sabres, on a preplanned night mission under radar control, dropped ordnance off target 23 miles northwest of Qui Nhon in Binh Dinh Province. Twenty ARVN — Army of the Republic of Vietnam — were killed and 41 wounded. Investigation is under way."

Headquarters gave no other details.

Peace Demonstrators Ready For Dual Anti-Vietnam Rally

By ARTHUR EVERETT

NEW YORK (AP) — Thousands upon thousands of peace demonstrators were on the move coast to coast yesterday, on the eve of a mammoth protest against the Vietnam war—a massing of humanity intended through its sheer dimensions to influence the course of American history.

As many as 500,000 were expected in San Francisco and New York, where police riot experts were on the alert to handle huge, potentially explosive throngs. A 50-50 chance of rain heightened authorities in New York.

Demonstrators under the auspices of the Spring Mobilization Committee to End the War in Vietnam, were converging on the Atlantic and Pacific coasts from throughout the nation, by car, bus, train, plane and afoot. Twenty from Boston, including seven women, ended a 20-day trek and prepared to spend the night in New York's Central Park.

With Americans dying in Vietnam, John F. Conway, vice president of the San Francisco Recreation and Park Commission, angrily denounced the spring mobilization to end the war in Vietnam as "mass sabotage of our armed forces."

Self-described black nationalists took to Harlem street corners, seeking to whip up support for Saturday's New York rally. Negro leaders, including Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., were in the forefront of the demonstrations on both coasts.

The Communist party planned a free propaganda distribution of its paper, the Worker, and assigned representatives to the protest marches. Said a New York spokesman: "There'll be a number of us marching under the banner of our party."

It was this melange, including draft-card burners, Viet Cong flag wavers and known agitators, which aroused the apprehension of authorities, who feared spectators and counter-demonstrators might be drawn into pitched battles with the protesting groups.

New York's Mayor John V. Lindsay expressed concern and urged antiwar demonstrators to conduct themselves "peacefully and with dignity."

Five thousand American sailors were due in New York today with the arrival of the aircraft carrier Wasp, and Lindsay said: "Our police department has been in touch with everyone, including the Navy." King, a Nobel Peace Prize winner, was to be the main speaker in New York. The Congress of Racial Equality's national director, Floyd McKissick, and black power advocate Stokely Carmichael were to lead a Harlem march to the marshalling point in Central Park.

Legislator Declares War On Development Centers

HARRISBURG (AP) — Sen. Albert R. Pechan, R-Armstrong, served notice on the Public Welfare Department yesterday that he intends to put the costs involved in operating its youth development centers and forestry camps under a high-powered microscope.

Pechan also indicated he was ready to renew his drive to have the institutions taken out of the Welfare Department's jurisdiction and turn them over to the Justice Department.

"I feel, first off, they belong under the Justice Department," said the Ford City Republican, who serves as assistant GOP floor leader and chairman of the Senate's Public Health and Welfare Committee.

"I'm concerned about the costs of operating these centers and camps," he continued.

According to Pechan's mathematics, the per capita cost of training a delinquent youth in the centers and forestry camps run, at a minimum, $2,000-to-$3,000 higher than at correctional institutions operated by the Justice Department, such as White Hill.

"I'm going to have to be shown that these costs are necessary and justified by the results," Pechan declared. "I think we get as much results out of White Hill as we do from the centers and camps."

"And at White Hill, you don't get involved in all that psychology and psychiatry. I don't say I want to treat these people like hardened criminals, but what they're doing (in the Welfare Department) is making these centers and camps into country clubs."

Juvenile offenders are assigned by the courts to the various institutions. The hardened, less trainable offenders usually

Army Brigade Reinforces Marines

By JONATHAN RANDAL

(c) N. Y. Times News Service

SAIGON—A United States Army brigade of 4,500 men has been airlifted to reinforce American Marines in the five northernmost provinces of South Vietnam, it was announced yesterday.

The 196th Light Infantry Brigade is the first major American Army unit to be assigned to I Corps, the military region covering the five provinces.

Except for the brief assignment of one Army airborne battalion last fall, the corps has been the sole responsibility of the U.S. Marines and the South Vietnamese armed forces.

The Marines, whose advance units landed in March, 1965, now numbers 73,000 men commanded by Lt. Gen. Lewis W. Walt.

The Army brigade was flown from its base camp in Tay Ninh province 45 miles northwest of Saigon to Chulati, the southernmost of four main enclaves spreading south from the 17th parallel which separates the two Vietnams.

Led by Brig. Gen. Richard T. Knowles, the Army brigade comes under the overall command of General Walt and is under the operational control of the First Marine Division, whose headquarters are in Chulati, 350 miles northeast of Saigon on the South China Sea.

An official American command announcement said the Army troops will help provide a protective shield for Vietnamese pacification workers of the revolutionary development program in Quangbin and Quangang provinces.

Meanwhile, the South Vietnamese armed forces reported having killed 230 Viet Cong soldiers in a two-day battle 90 miles southwest of Saigon in the rice fields of the Mekong River delta.

Informed sources said that three Viet Cong battalions involved in the fighting had begun to withdraw, an apparent contradiction to earlier South Vietnamese reports which indicated that a four-battalion government force had the enemy encircled.

United States Air Force F-100 Supersabres were credited with killing at least 56 enemy soldiers and artillery was believed to have accounted for many more enemy dead of the 301, 309 and 310 Viet Cong Battalions.

Poor weather over North Vietnam Thursday limited American fighter bomber missions to 72. Navy pilots reported destroying 2 barges and damaging 19 others in a raid 24 miles southwest of the port of Haiphong.

Air Force B-52's carried out three raids in South Vietnam in the last 24 hours.

State Trooper Recruiters Here on Friday

Captain Robert L. Dunham, commanding officer, Pennsylvania State Police, Erie, has announced a state police recruiting team will be in this area to interview persons interested in a career with the organization.

The minimum requirements to become state policemen are as follows: a citizen of the United States and resident of Pennsylvania for the past year; between 21 and 30 years of age; possess a valid Pennsylvania operator's license; 20/30 vision each eye uncorrected; 5 feet, eight inches to six feet four; 145 to 210 pounds and a High School graduate.

Capt. Dunham said the career of state policemen is a rewarding one with an annual salary of $6,390 to $8,580; partially paid hospitalization; 15 days vacation; 15 days sick leave and an early retirement plan.

Interviews will be given at the Warren Armory on Hickory street on Friday, April 21.

Titusville IFC Drive Collects $2,351 Pledges

TITUSVILLE—A total of $2,351.03 in cash has been received as of yesterday for the Interfaith Center Fund Campaign for the Titusville area. An additional $5,005 has been pledged to be given over the next three years.

To reach the Titusville area goal of $10,000 to erect an Interfaith Center at Warren State Hospital, there is $2,643 still needed. Churches and congregations that have not yet participated in the campaign are being urged to consider the appeal and indicate what their goal could be over a three-year period.

forecast constant acceleration of recreation development in the national forest, with more roads, trails and waterfront facilities being developed.

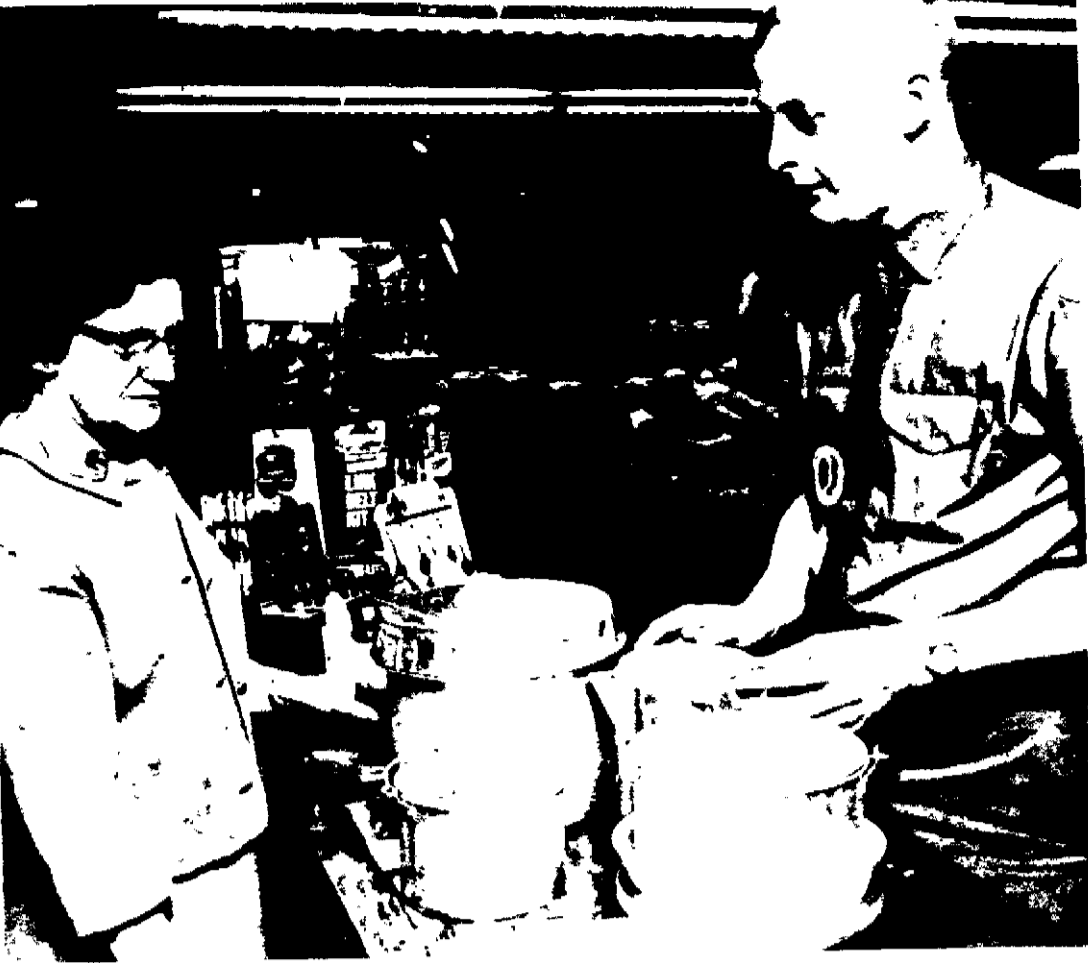

Sundheimer declared: "Second growth forest in this region is some of the most valuable harvest forest in the world. We have some of the most glamorous forests in the Eastern United States, mainly because of the black cherry."

Dr. Goddard roundly complimented Warren County Commissioner Deac Lay on his effective working for necessary zoning of three Warren County townships bordering on the Allegheny Reservoir. It was agreed by most speakers that failure to protect recreation areas by advance zoning can utterly defeat the success of proper development for public use.

Goddard also discussed with Times-Mirror and Observer outdoor writer Don Neal many of the key problems of "all-purpose" use of the forests by the people. Goddard observed that, regardless of the extent of camping, hiking, waterfront and other recreational facilities state or federal agencies may develop, the lion's share of such facilities must be provided through private initiative and capital.

Many specialists and authorities in the field of timber resources participated in the symposium. Roe S. Cochran, area forest industry agent of Pennsylvania State University at Ridgway, coordinated the event. Clarence E. Craver, McKean County agent, was moderator. Clifton Terbush, urban renewal consultant of Harrisburg, participated in the panel of economic, cultural and social developments in 15 years. The panel included John Antonini of West Penn Power Co., St. Marys; O. Albert Johnson, president, Hamilton Bank & Trust Co., Smethport; and Kelley.

Samuel S. Cobb, Director, Bureau of Forestry, Pennsylvania Department of Forest and Waters was speaker on timber resources panel, which included Malcolm M. Armstrong, forest engineer, Armstrong Forest

PUC Plans to Investigate Recent Railroad Derailments

By STEVEN B. MARCUS HARRISBURG (AP)—George I. Bloom, chairman of the Public Utility Commission, said yesterday the commission would redouble its efforts to speed an investigation into what it has called a disturbing number of train wrecks in the state.

Bloom made the statement, which was issued by a commission spokesman, several hours after the latest in a series of four Pennsylvania Railroad freight train derailments.

He said he has asked the commission's Transportation Bureau to "redouble its efforts to speed the investigation in view of the most recent freight derailments."

The spokesman said the bureau is compiling information on the wrecks for the PUC. The commission had ordered the 53 railroads in the state to submit a report listing their derailments and causes from 1960 through 1966.

At the commission's pre-hearing session last Jan. 25, the PUC ordered the railroads to submit within 30 days the names of expert witnesses who would be expected to testify at further hearings.

The spokesman said the Transportation Bureau would send questionnaires to the railroads within the next 10 days, detailing the kinds of questions the witnesses would be asked.

Further hearings will be scheduled soon, he said.

When asked to comment on the PUC's action, Thomas P. Shearer, an attorney for the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, said the brotherhood "was gratified that the commission feels as we do."

"This matter merits investigation," he said in a telephone interview from his Pittsburgh office. "It's lucky no one has been injured in these derailments."

Shearer represented the brotherhood at the pre-hearing session. At that time, he charged that the Pennsy's tracks have deteriorated to the point where they are "a hazard to employees and the public."

The latest derailment began Monday, when two trains went off the tracks at East Vandergrift and Oil City. On Tuesday, another derailment occurred involving two trains running side

The quick jaunt to Guam a month ago was even more hectic and unclear. The long flight did not lend itself to good public display or even full explanation within the government and the criticism of others deeply disturbed the president.

Before leaving for South America Johnson tried to make sure that his purpose was fully known. And several times during the conference he asked reporters who had recalled the exhaustion at Guam whether they were getting enough rest and information.

Most of these precautions turned out to be superfluous. For an entire week the President was relatively free not only of the direct burdens of the war in Vietnam and of the contention that surround the war in Washington.

Instead, he was deeply engaged in what is really the first major initiative of his administration abroad—the grand and daring design of a Latin American common market, attended by new programs of social welfare.

The emphasis on personal diplomacy was a further boon for Johnson.

Above all, however, was the success of the tactics the President evolved for the conference: a heavy stress on the need for the Latin Americans to take the lead in their own economic development and political salvation; a refusal to buy their favor or flatter their temporary humor with lavish new promises of aid and, indeed, a firm offer to help that was contingent directly upon their readiness to help themselves through difficult and unpopular measures at home.

An official of the Welfare Department, who declined identification, acknowledged that it costs more to operate the centers than it does White Hill.

He has been unsuccessful thus far in his attempt to obtain legislative approval.

Chautauqua to Borrow First Time for Budget

MAYVILLE, N.Y.—The Chautauqua County Board of Supervisors, at its regular monthly meeting yesterday, ended many years of pay-as-you-go fiscal policy when it authorized a capital project fund of $5.3 million, to be raised from budgetary appropriations and by borrowing.

The fund will pay for remodeling and reconstruction of the present county courthouse building, including furnishings for the construction of an addition to the courthouse, and for a new county health and welfare building.

In other board action, $27,000 was set aside for the construction of a three-bedroom house at the county home in Dunkirk as a residence for county welfare commissioner Burton G. Miner. Jamestown supervisor R. Theodore Smith cast the lone dissenting vote on the residence issue.

A resolution by six Democratic supervisors, four from the city of Jamestown, requesting that minutes of committee meetings be sent to supervisors with their agenda, was referred to the board rules committee after brief opposition by Republican supervisor Robert Owens, Town of Westfield.

Yesterday's meeting was mostly routine, but a resolution calling for the county planning board to make application to the New York State Health Department for a county-wide refuse disposal study also met with the approval of the county legislators. The study will be completely financed by the State of New York.

Randall Geabon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Geabon of 22 W. Fourteenth st., who is afflicted with cerebral palsy, will receive 13 weeks at the New York State Rehabilitation Center at West Haverstraw, N.Y., as a result of a resolution authorizing payment of $1,200 for the service.

A contract with National Cash Register Co. authorizing rental of data processing equipment for $17,580 a year, to be used in the welfare department, was also approved. Jamestown supervisor Theodore Vimmerstedt voted against the measure.

Miner told the board that more than 40,000 people in Chautauqua County are eligible for Medicaid benefits, and that the number applying for benefits is increasing at the rate of 325 per week. Miner indicated that his department processed more than 11,000 bills last month, and have at least that many more which have not been processed.

The data processing equipment is designed to speed up the payment of Medicaid benefits.

3 In Memoriam

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of my dear mother, Margaret Nocera, who passed away 2 years ago today, April 15, 1965.

I am lonesome here without you, And sad in every way, For life is not the same to me Since you were called away. My heart still aches with loneliness, My eyes shed many a tear, Only God knows how much I miss you, At the end of two lonely years, Sadly missed & remembered by daughter Thelma Matteo

In memory of Clyde Davis who was called to his eternal rest 1 year ago, April 16, 1966.

Dear, I can nerve myself to face the light But, O beloved, I cannot face the waking. Can not endure the tender, dawning light, After deep sleep that seems to end all sorrow. Must I renew the bitter fight each dawn, After sweet dreams which God in mercy sends me, Must I awake & always find you gone, Sadly missed by wife and daughter.

'Supercow' New Development Of Computers

The Holstein-Friesian Association of America is arranging computer dates for cows.

At H-FAA headquarters in Brattleboro, Vt., a computer ruminate data on pedigrees, milk production and cow physics. The machine is programmed to show which cattle couple will produce "the ideal milk-producing animal—Supercow."

As part of the project, "body type" scores have been gathered for more than 175,000 Holsteins. A perfect score—the cattle equivalent of 36-24-36—is 100. So far no cow has rated higher than 97.

FBI Agents at Scene Thwart Pittsburgh Robbery Attempt

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Two FBI agents thwarted a bank robbery in a blazing gun battle in Pittsburgh's Allentown section yesterday, leaving one of two bandits critically wounded. The agents said they came upon the holdup by accident.

THIS COULD BE THE YEAR!

This mammoth Century plant at the Warren State Hospital greenhouse is showing definite signs of blooming for the first time. Hospital officials are unable to recall how the plant happens to be in its present location. The bud is just beginning to show its tinge of pink. Times-Mirror and Observer photographer plans to take a second picture when the plant is actually in bloom.

Mafia 'Enforcer' Receives Sentence

NEW YORK (AP) — John (Sonny) Franzese, described by the prosecution as a Mafia "enforcer," was sentenced yesterday to 50 years in prison and a $20,000 fine for bank robbery, receiving stolen money and conspiracy to rob banks. Several codefendants were sentenced to lesser jail terms.

Over the prosecutor's protests, Federal Judge Jacob Mishler in Brooklyn Federal Court set an appeal bond of $150,000 for Franzese.

He has been free on that amount of bail since his conviction March 3 by a jury in Albany, but the old bond was cancelled on sentencing, and it is necessary for him to post new bail.

His attorney, Maurice Edelbaum, said it was being arranged and predicted reversal of the conviction by the Appellate Court.

Also sentenced were Joseph (Whitey) Florio and Nicholas Potere, both 41, given 15 years on the same charges, and William (Red) Crabbe, 37, five years for receiving stolen money and conspiracy.

The sentencing of a fifth defendant, John Matera, 33, was delayed because his lawyer was late.

Trial of the five had been shifted to Albany after their first trial in Brooklyn was thrown out because of prejudice.

Economic Reformist New Hungarian Premier

BUDAPEST, Hungary (AP) — János Fock, a reformist specializing in economics, was named premier of Hungary yesterday in a government reshuffle that also saw President Istvan Dobi resign.

Fock replaces Gyula Kallai, the No. 2 Communist behind party leader János Kádár. Kallai was named president of the new 349-member Parliament elected last month.

At 69, Dobi presumably resigned because of ill health. The new president is Pal Losonczi, 48, a farming expert who has been minister of agriculture since 1960.

Western diplomats in Vienna saw Kallai's transfer as a demotion, since East European parliaments have little authority. They said Kallai was less liberal than Kádár.

Fock, 51, is expected to try to carry out a reform to combine the best of a free market economy with those of Communist planning. This reform becomes operative next Jan. 1 and is said to exceed similar ventures elsewhere in Eastern Europe.

Fock moved up from deputy premier, a veteran Communist, he has held a variety of government and party positions.

Communist sources insisted the appointment of Kallai, 57, was aimed at upgrading Parliament, now largely a rubber stamp. Under current reforms, Parliament will be given more authority to supervise Cabinet members and government agencies, they added.

One agent was forced inside the bank for awhile by one of the bandits.

A retired city policeman helped the agents subdue the other gunman and wrestle his gun free.

Bank officials said all of the loot, a shopping-bag full, was recovered. There was no immediate estimate of the amount.

Daniel J. Koenig, 34, of Miami, Fla., was hospitalized with a head wound. His companion, Joseph H. Brown, 31, of New York City was treated for a head laceration and released.

Neither FBI agents Lawrence Bria or Roland Purnell nor retired policeman Edward Kuss were injured.

The FBI said the agents were driving through the area on another assignment when they noticed two men in coveralls enter the Hill Top Branch of the Western Pennsylvania National Bank.

The agents became suspicious and stopped. They said they peered through a bank window and saw a robbery in progress.

They waited outside for the robbers to leave, with Bria remaining in the car and Purnell hiding around a corner.

The FBI said one of the bandits spotted Bria in the car and forced him into the bank.

Bank employee George Afor said two men walked up to a teller and one held a sawed off rifle over the counter. The other man jumped into the cage and began stuffing money into a shopping bag.

The bandits emerged from the bank, the FBI said, and Koenig opened fire and Purnell shot back. Koenig crumpled to the pavement.

Meanwhile, Bria, who had followed the two out of the bank, wrestled with Brown. Kuss jumped from his car and helped Bria.

Evolution Class Causes Science Teacher Firing

By ESCAR THOMPSON JACKSBORO, Tenn. (AP) — Gary L. Scott taught his last science classes at Jacksboro High School yesterday after being fired for teaching evolution.

Scott's dismissal by the Campbell County School Board Thursday night came one day after the state House of Representatives voted 58-27 to repeal the state's anti-evolution law. The measure is now before the state Senate in Nashville.

Soon after the law was enacted in 1925, it resulted in the famous "Monkey Trial" of John T. Scopes at Dayton, 80 miles west of here.

Scopes, a young biology teacher at Dayton at the time, was convicted of teaching evolution and fined $100 but he escaped the fine on a technicality. He now lives in Shreveport, La., in retirement.

Scott, 24, graduated from the University of Tennessee in Knoxville last December and immediately was hired as a science teacher here. He taught classes in physics, general and physical sciences.

Scott, who resides in Knoxville with his wife (the former Jane Riddell of Surrey, England), denied teaching that man descended from an inferior being.

Celler Submits Revised Compromise on Powell

By JAMES F. CLARITY (c) N.Y. Times News Service WASHINGTON—A search is being conducted in the House of Representatives for a formula that would solve the question of whether Adam Clayton Powell should be seated in or excluded from the 90th Congress, despite his re-election last Tuesday.

One possible arrangement was described yesterday by Rep. Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y. He said he was drafting a resolution that would call for Powell's censure but would not require the Harlem politician to be present in the House when and if it should censure him.

Except for this detail, the resolution is similar to the one proposed by Celler and rejected by the House when it voted to oust Powell on March 1.

The new Celler resolution,

Unique 'Help Wanted' In College Newspaper

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — "Will someone please marry me for a year? I am desperate."

Thus began an advertisement in the Daily Pennsylvanian, the University of Pennsylvania's undergraduate newspaper.

"This is the only way for junior women to get out of Penn's dormitories," it continued, and was signed: "Liz Freedman," with the telephone number, 594-5357.

Attractive Miss Freedman, who is 19 and has reddish hair, says the telephone calls have been pouring in since the ad ran in Thursday's paper.

She explained that she feels it's just about impossible to be a serious student at Penn and live in a women's dormitory. She describes her dorm as "150 screaming girls."

She wants to get married for one year, long enough to see her through her junior year. The following year, as a senior, she is free under university rules to move into an apartment by herself.

The major qualification of the man she is seeking is that he have an apartment. Aside from that she wants someone who is "friendly, someone I can talk to."

Miss Freedman of New Rochelle, N.Y., is majoring in international relations. She plans to take seven courses next semester, two over the normal five course limit. Her present average is 3.45 (4.00 is perfect).

Miss Freedman emphasized that she is looking for a "platonic relationship."

200 Negro College Students March on Nashville City Hall

By BOB GILBERT NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — About 200 Negro college students, joined by a few whites, chanted "black power" on a two-mile march to City Hall yesterday to protest police handling of last weekend's rioting. After voicing grievances against the "white power structure," police and the press, the marchers headed back for their campus with a brief detour through the downtown business section.

Signs they carried said, "Students Come Together to Protest Police Brutality" and "Police Brutality and Slums Cause Riots." There were no incidents.

At the conclusion of the hike, a number of students, many of them still carrying textbooks under their arms, headed for afternoon classes.

Asked for a statement, several Negroes pointed to a press release they had issued earlier and said, "We don't want to say any more or give our names because the press in Nashville has distorted the news about all of this."

The release said the "armed warfare which occurred between black students and the police lie largely with the white power structure."

"If any one incident can be said to have touched off the rebellion (last weekend), it is the confrontation of police and students who had formed a picket line in front of the University Inn in response to a black student who was thrown out and beaten by a mob of white 'cracker' cops."

The statement said students were "beaten, intimidated, dragged off to jail and shot. Is it any wonder that students went to war with the Nashville police and began to retaliate with rocks, Molotov cocktails and, ultimately, guns."

The Negroes, most apparently students at Fisk and Tennessee State A&I Universities, marched from the Negro campus area in North Nashville. The colleges were the scene of the earlier riots.

Seneca Nation Receives Cloth In Jimersontown

SALAMANCA, N.Y.—The annual distribution of treaty cloth to members of the Seneca Nation of Indians will take place from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. today at the Haley Community Building in Jimersontown.

Distribution on the Cataraugus reservation will be during the same hours April 22 at the Saylor Community Building in Irving.

The presentation of one and one-half yards of unbleached muslin for every member of the Seneca Nation fulfills the 1794 treaty made by the U.S. government with the six Indian nations.

JCC Dean Named To State Committee

Dr. Albert W. Baisler was named to the committee by Glenn A. Olds, executive dean of the international studies and world affairs committee. The group is funded by the U.S. Information Service.

Tories Win British Off-Year Election

By W. GRANGER BLAIR (c) N. Y. Times News Service

LONDON—The Conservative bandwagon continued to ride roughshod over Labor yesterday as the week-long local elections in England and Wales neared their end.

Nowhere was the stunning reversal of political fortunes for the Labor party more manifest than in London where the Conservatives ended 33 years of Labor rule and achieved a majority in the 100-member Greater London Council.

With final results in from London's boroughs, the Tories had won 82 seats and Labor 18. In the outgoing council, elected three years ago, Labor holds 64 seats and the Conservatives 36.

But the measure of the Conservative success, far greater than the party's most optimistic boosters had forecast, was not limited to London. The most notable reversals in favor of the Tories came in Lancashire and Nottinghamshire. In the former the Conservatives captured control after 10 years of Labor rule and in the latter they ended 21 years of Labor control.

More indicative of the Tory sweep outside London was the fact that in 39 county councils, the Conservatives have elected 1,151 candidates, a net gain of 256 over the 1964 elections. Labor, with 544 candidates elected, has so far suffered a net loss of 286 seats. Nineteen county council elections remain to be held today.

The large number of independent county councilors, nominally nonpolitical, has been reduced. So far 697 have been elected for a net loss of 27 seats. The small Liberal party has won 61 county seats for a net loss of 3.

Fish and Fishermen Ready for Opening

This is the day. The day when approximately a half-million trout fishermen take to the streams of Pennsylvania in an attempt to creel some 1,800,000 speckled beauties stocked by the Fish Commission in something over four thousand miles of streams. Several thousands of these trout have been stocked in Warren County streams and throughout the waters of the Allegheny National Forest.

Reports from sportsmen who helped stock this year's trout indicate that they were unusually good size and seemed to be in excellent condition at the time they were placed in the stream. In addition, the weather man has cooperated by keeping county streams at an ideal level for the opening day. And prospects are that the warmth of yesterday will hold over to keep the fishermen comfortable as they ply the frigid waters that are still running with a touch of melted snow.

Worms, salmon eggs and possibly cheese are expected to be the favored baits of the day, with minnows, both live and salted, running a close second. Hardware and spinning equipment will also be in considerable use, with the fly fishing purists being in the minority.

Favored fishing grounds will probably be Chapman Dam, Brokenstraw Creek, Tionesta Creek and its branches, Four Mile and Jackson Run.

Things for the fisherman to remember as he takes to the stream are:

SEASON—Starts at 5 a.m.
SPECIES—Brook, brown and rainbow trout.
MINIMUM SIZE—6 inches.
AND—that the limit in Chapman Dam, and all other ponds or lakes stocked with trout, is just six fish. Eight trout will remain the limit on all county streams, except Caldwell Creek in the "special" area. Regulations for this stream are posted at all points of entry.

A Pennsylvania Fish Commission release urges fishermen to be careful of fires and refrain from litterbugging.

Tagged trout in the Youngsville area will be good for prizes from local merchants. The contest is sponsored by the Brokenstraw Fish and Game Club.

Potent Offense Vs. Height in Star Game

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M., (AP) —North scoring potency versus a slight Southern height advantage will highlight today's second annual North-South college all-star basketball game in 14,831-seat University Arena.

The South won the first game 93-92 last year at Wichita, Kan., where the 1967 game also was scheduled before a conflict of dates forced transfer of the game to the University of New Mexico.

Game time is 4 p.m. EST. It will not be nationally televised.

Southern forces will have the crowd behind them with two New Mexico players on their roster, third-team All-America Mel Daniels and defensive whiz Ben Monroe.

Four of the nation's leading scorers during the 1966-67 season dot the Yankee team, including All-America Jim Walker of Providence—the collegiate scoring champion with an average points per game of 30.4.

Walker passed up last week's East-West game but is expected in Albuquerque because Providence's Jim Mullaney is coaching the North. New Mexico's Bob King is coaching the South.

Besides Walker, the North boasts Mal Graham of New York University, the No. 3 scorer in the nation with a 28.7 average; Wes Bialosuknia, Connecticut, 28.0 average, and Cliff Anderson, St. Joseph's, Pa., 26.5.

Add to that 6-foot-8 Sonny Dove of St. John's, whose 26 points carried the East to a 102-93 victory over the West last week at Lexington, Ky.

Craig Dill of Michigan is the

Petty Moves Up To Second On NASCAR List

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Richard Petty has moved into second place among all-time winners of Grand National late model stock car races under NASCAR jurisdiction.

Two victories last weekend gave the 28-year-old Randleman, N.C., driver a total of 52. His father, Lee Petty, is the only man to win more. Lee was first 54 times before he retired. Junior Johnson, also now retired, won 50 for third best.

Richard Petty also moved up to second place in this year's point standings with his victories at Columbia and Hickory.

James Hylton leads with 13,648. Petty has 9,550; Fred Lorenzen, 9,268 for third; John Sears, 8,380 for fourth and Darel Dieringer, 8,180 for fifth.

The next five are Dewayne (Tiny) Lund, 7,676; Neil Castles, 7,624; David Pearson, 7,514; Donnie Allison, 7,216, and Sonny Hutchins, 7,064.

Cager Rejects College Offers

NEWARK, N.J. (AP) — Dana Lewis, Weequahic High School's 6-foot-10 basketball player, rejected the recruiting efforts of virtually every major college in the country and announced Wednesday night that he will attend Oral Roberts University in Tulsa, Okla., for religious reasons.

Oral Roberts, which is only two years old, is named after and administered by the world-famed evangelist, acknowledged spiritual leader of the Pentecostal Church, to which Lewis' family belongs.

Lewis tied Weequahic to 40 straight victories and two New Jersey State championships.

'Much Ado About Nothing,' Clay-Patterson Bout Off

By JERRY LISK A Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP) — The race to stage a world heavyweight title bout between Champion Cassius Clay and Floyd Patterson before Clay's scheduled army induction April 28 ended in no contest yesterday.

Flickering chance that the Clay-Patterson rematch, chased out of Las Vegas, Nev., and Pittsburgh earlier this week might be held April 27 in Albuquerque, N.M., was doused by Clay's Black Muslim manager, Herbert Muhammad.

Less than an hour after Muhammad said he preferred Albuquerque over Atlanta as last-minute site possibilities, Clay's chief adviser called the whole thing off.

The time is too short for proper and fair promotion of the fight," Muhammad told The Associated Press. "Such haste would only cheapen the heavyweight championship."

"I have talked to the champion and others involved in our camp and we all agreed not to hold the fight until we give some promoter enough time to hold the fight properly."

Muhammad said Clay, whose attorneys have petitioned U.S. Supreme Court aid in reviewing Clay's legal battle against army induction, agreed Muhammad was "doing the right thing, although he is in good shape and could fight tomorrow if necessary."

If Clay wins a delay in his induction, Albuquerque ostensibly could still get the bout between Clay and Patterson, already soundly whipped by the champion.

Muhammad earlier Friday expressed great satisfaction that New Mexico's governor, David Cargo, Thursday had welcomed the bout in his state, stating "have them come a day early and stay a day late."

Even after Muhammad announced the fight was off, Gov. Cargo said: "If there is anything we still might be able to do to stage the fight, including the area of promotion, we'd be glad to help them."

It was reported by the Atlanta Constitution that Georgia Gov. Lester Maddox indicated he would not ban the fight if approved by the Atlanta Stadium Authority.

The Atlanta Braves sought the orphan bout for Atlanta Stadium and had overnight talks with Chauncey Eskridge, Clay's attorney, who visited Atlanta from Washington.

Muhammad, however, said he was against Atlanta as a site, asserting "I just don't think we should take the chance of having some state official, commission or the mayor jumping up at the last minute and knocking out the fight."

The bout was chased out of Las Vegas and Pittsburgh because of objection by the governors of Nevada and Pennsylvania.

Ex-Button Pusher Outsmarts Rangers

By DICK COUCH A Associated Press Sports Writer

MONTREAL (AP) — Hector (Toe) Blake, whose Montreal Canadiens are making a strong early run at a third straight Stanley Cup, has convinced the critics he's more than a push button coach.

But the New York Rangers are beginning to wonder whether the 54-year-old hockey Hall of Famer has a magic wand up his sleeve.

Blake, accused of merely pushing buttons when the talented Canadiens won the National Hockey League postseason crown a record five straight times in his first five years as their coach, staggered New York with a pair of tactical gems in a 2-1 playoff victory over the Rangers.

The Montreal coach gave Dick Duff and John Ferguson spot assignments on power plays and both clicked for goals as the Canadiens zipped to a 2-0 advantage in the best-of-7 semifinal series.

Duff, who lost a regular job in the last month of the season and was used sparingly in the playoff opener, made his first appearance on ice midway in the opening period the third game and promptly scored the game's initial goal.

Ferguson, sent off the bench for a faceoff with seven minutes gone in the final period, immediately fired the deciding goal, snapping a 1-1 deadlock. Ex-Canadian Boom Boom Geoffrion had shot New York even with a second period power play goal.

Ralph Backstrom added an insurance tally, his third goal of the series, for the Canadiens 5½ minutes after Ferguson's tie-breaker.

The Canadiens won their last six starts of the season and whipped the Rangers 6-4 Thursday night, overcoming a 4-1 deficit with five goals in the last 11 minutes.

The series continued Tuesday and Thursday night in New York.

Blake's first five Montreal clubs who held the Stanley Cup from 1956-60 were spearheaded by all-time NHL stars Maurice Richard, Dickie Moore, Doug Harvey, Jacques Plante, Jean Beliveau and Geoffrion. Blake admitted they made the coaching job easier for him.

"Those fellows used to go out and knock in half a dozen goals at any given time," he said. "They were a great bunch."

The Canadiens' stretch drive to a second place finish this year, however, has been a tribute to Blake's skills. Beseet by injuries and scoring droughts, Blake stuck with his veterans and finally molded a winning combination in the last six weeks of the season.

Duff, who returned to his spot on the end of the bench after scoring in the first period Saturday, said he had no complaints over his role as a pinch hitter.

"I feel I'm ready when they need me," he said. "Those other guys deserve to be playing ahead of me right now, but I try to do my part. That's the kind of team this is. Everybody contributes. We can all taste the money."

Ike Cindermen Open At Indiana Invitational

The Eisenhower cinder squad will open its season today at the tough Indiana University of Pennsylvania Invitational track meet.

Coach Denny Engstrom said that he will take 26 boys to the meet. He said that he is going into the event blind and doesn't know who will be there or what to expect.

According to a release that he received, 53 schools have been entered, about 900 athletes.

The meet has been held in the past mainly for schools in Western and Central Pennsylvania. It has grown from 36 teams last year to 53 this time around.

Winners last year in the Class A division were Johnstown and Bellwood Antis was Class B champion.

Engstrom listed the following Eisenhower boys as the ones to watch at the meet: Dick Hale, 100-yard dash and long jump; Gary Olson, 440 and 220; John Wiltzie, 880; Martin Hoffman, high jump and javelin; Dave Burnett, triple jump; Dan Larson in the two mile run; and pole vaulters Gary Dalrymple and Dave VanCise.

Engstrom said that his mile relay team of Gary Olson, Mark Briggs, Tom Bosko and Dick Hale is capable of performing well.

With only five lettermen returning Engstrom looks on the campaign as a rebuilding year.

Van Cise is the only senior monogram winner and the other four, Hale, Bosko, Wiltzie and Olson—are all juniors.

Assisted by knowledgeable Tom Firth, Engstrom started the pre-season practice with 92 boys and still has 83 out, the biggest squad ever to report at Eisenhower.

The Knights lost 19 seniors to graduation, but—in addition to the five lettermen—18 other boys are holdovers from last year's team.

Hale will be the Knights' number one sprinter. Reportedly stronger this year, he may run some 440-yard dashes, in addition to the 100 and 220, according to Engstrom. He is also a solid favorite in the long jump and hold the EHS record of 19' 11½".

Olson is set in the 220 and 440 and will also compete in the shot. He has posted a 54.8 in the quarter mile and can be counted on for his share of first places in the event.

Wiltzie and Bosko both have been flirting with the 210 mark in the 880-yard run, and the latter will also run the mile. Wiltzie will be called on in the 440 and will also see some relay work.

Van Cise is the Knights' premier pole vaulter, where he will be backed up by Gary Dalrymple.

Engstrom probably suffered his biggest loss in the hurdles with the graduation of record-holder Skip Trumbull; junior Burnett is expected to fill the gap in both events.

In addition to the hurdles, Burnett is also shaping up as the Knights best triple jumper. Engstrom reports that he hits 36 feet consistently and is capable of reaching 40.

Sophomore Hoffman showed real promise in the high jump as a freshman. He has consistently cleared 5'10" and seems sure to hit the six-foot mark before the season is over.

The boys in the weight events, according to Engstrom, are probably a year away from taking first places. Hoffman, the junior high record holder the javelin, will compete in that event and the discus.

Engstrom says the two-mile run is shaping up well. He expects senior Dan Larson, out for the first time, and junior Jeff Lindell to battle for the school record.

Today's competition will give Engstrom some idea of what to expect this year, but the Knights face a tough schedule. In addition to Class B teams, Sheffield, Tidioute, Youngsville and Randolph, Eisenhower will be meeting Warren, Corry, Jamestown, Bradford and North East.

The lack of experience makes the year a question mark, but Engstrom looks to his strong juniors to show steady improvement and the Knights will have to be reckoned with next season.

The 1967 schedule is as follows:

April	15	at Indiana Invitational
	18	Corry
	21	Southwestern and Jamestown
		Sheffield and Tidioute
May	2	North East
	6	at Youngsville Invitational
	9	at Bradford with Warren
	12	at Randolph, N.Y.
	15	Youngsville
	20	Districts at Edinboro
	27	State Meet

Frank Beard Leads Field by 3 Strokes

Associated Press Sports Writer

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Surprising Frank Beard continued yesterday to tame the golf course and hold back his more famed opposition as he shot a three-under-par 68 and posted a 36-hole score of 133 in the $100,000 Tournament of Champions.

The 27-year-old Louisville, Ky., pro played the par 36.45. 71 Stardust Golf Club course in 33-35-68 and goes into the third round today with a lead of three strokes over Jack Nicklaus, Doug Sanders and Dan Sikes. Nicklaus and Sikes each had a 68, and Sanders a 69 for 136.

It was a day of unexpected developments that started when popular Tom Nisporste was disqualified for failing, after a misunderstanding, to make his scheduled tee-off time.

The climactic surprise befell Plane-Load of Benvenuti's Followers Arrive

NEW YORK (AP)—Nino Benvenuti's wife, father and brother arrived with 149 other Italian fights fans on a chartered plane Friday to root for the Italian in his title fight with middleweight champion Emile Griffith at Madison Square Garden Monday night.

Asked whether her husband would win, the petite Juliana, mother of two, replied confidently: "Wherever I go, we win. When we return to Italy in about two weeks, we will bring back the title."

With her was Nino's father, Fernando, and brother, Aifio.

Several hundred more Italian fans are expected to arrive this weekend in chartered planes.

The fight marks the American debut of the Italian fighter. Although he has lost only one of 72 pro fights, the 28-year-old challenger is a 13-5 underdog against the title-tested Griffith.

Both Benvenuti and Griffith have finished their hard training for the 15-rounder.

National Open champion Billy Casper, when he shot three straight drives out of bounds on the par-5, 536-yard 15th hole and carded a horrendous 11.

It was an all-time high for Casper, and he posted a 37-40-77 for 148, six strokes over par for the distance and 13 behind the pace-setting Beard.

Masters champion Gay Brewer, with a 72; Bobby Nichols, 71; R. H. Sikes, 70, and Bruce Devlin, 68, were tied at 139.

Bob Goalby with a 71 was alone at 140, and tied at 141 were Arnold Palmer, 73; Art Wall Jr., 69, and Don January, 74.

"A real fabulous day," said Palmer. "I putted well the last three holes, but by then it was too late. I'd have to say the greens are the main reason."

Nicklaus, who started with a bogey and ended with an eagle three, had a curious mixture of bogies, double bogies and birdies thrown in.

Beard, whose 65 led the field of 26 in the first round, commented, "I made seven birdies again today, but I didn't hit as many greens. The wind was a factor as far as I'm concerned, and I'm fortunate to score as well as I did."

Beard birdied three of the first four holes, had a bogey and a birdie on the sixth and eighth. Then on the back nine, when the wind began to whip across the desert, he was bogey-birdie, bogey-birdie and bogey-par through 15.

He picked up his last birdie on the 16th.

Casper's horror, although he took it in good nature, came when he hooked his drive three times in a row.

"There was wind, yes, but I can't blame it on the wind or the club or anything but me," he said.

Casper's club is a new one he began using when he broke his 10-year-old veteran stick in the Philippines during a tour last month.

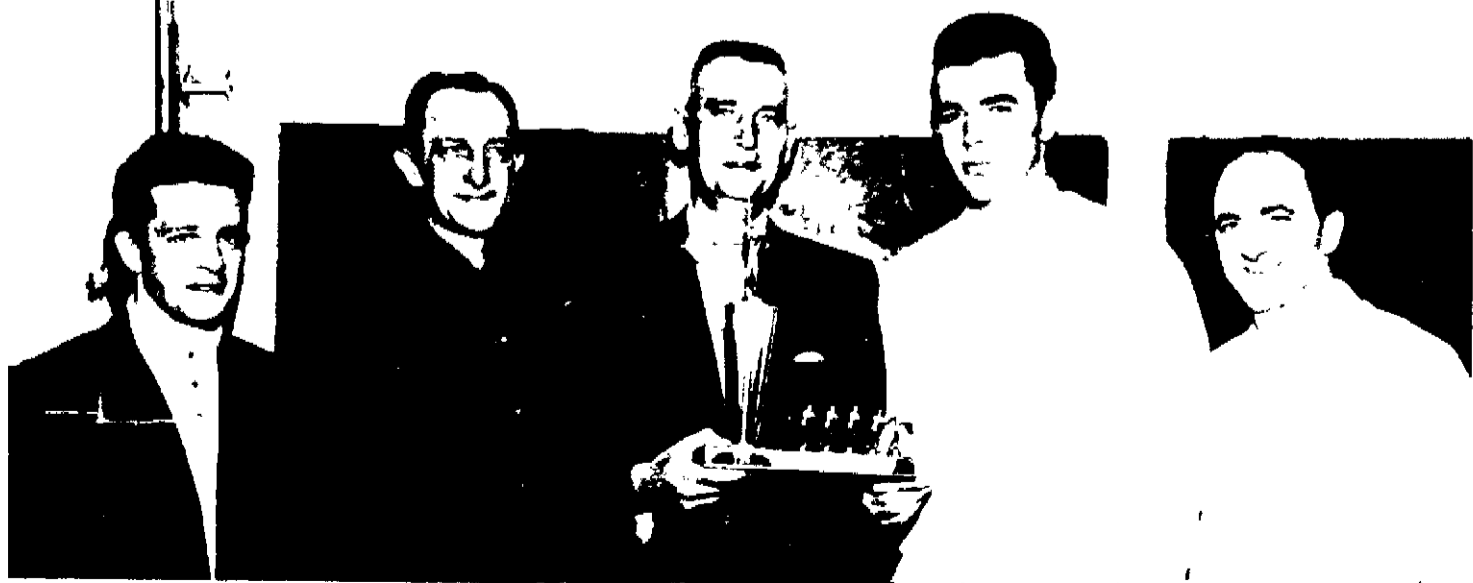

The tournament will be televised by ABC-TV today 4-5 p.m. EST and tomorrow 4-5:30 p.m. EST.

Clay, Patterson, Tops in Ratings

NEW YORK (AP) — Cassius Clay was named fighter of the Month by Ring Magazine Thursday, and his chief sparring mate, Jimmy Ellis, moved into the top 10 of the heavyweight division for the first time.

Clay earned the honor by knocking out Zora Foley in the seventh round of their title fight March 22. It was Clay's ninth successful title defense.

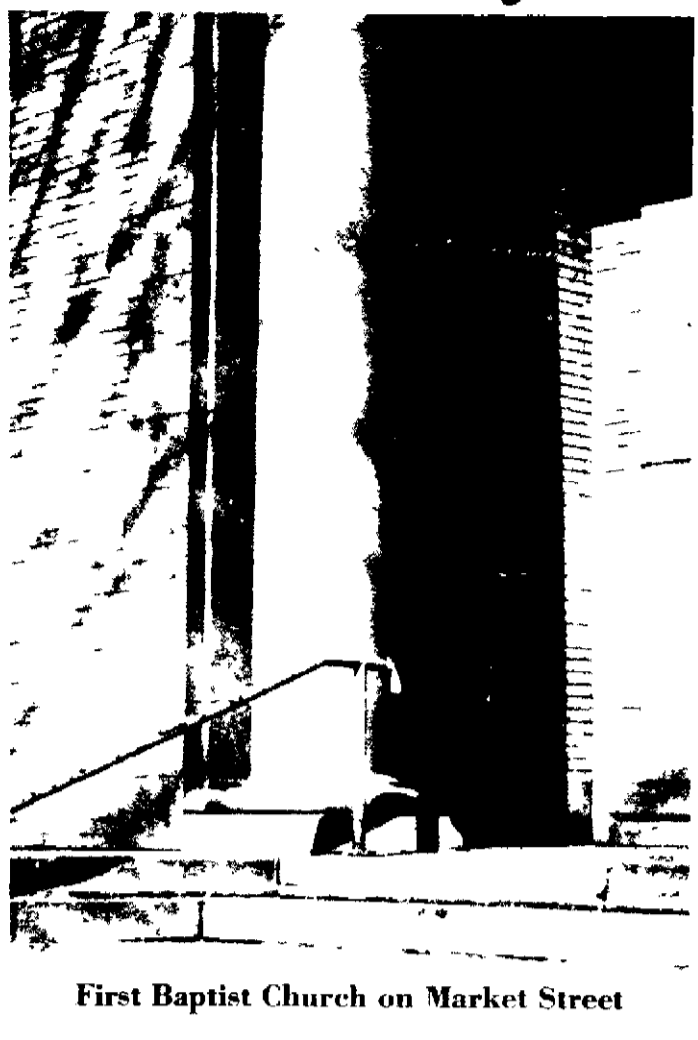

Ellis, who works out with Clay prior to the champion's bouts, was made the 10th ranking contender after he posted a one-round knockout over Johnny Persol in a preliminary to the Clay-Foley fight.

East Germany May Ease West Tension

(c) N.Y. Times News Service
BERLIN—East German Communists showed cautious interest yesterday in West German proposals for an easing of tensions between East Berlin and Bonn and indicated they might join in an East-West dialogue.

The moderately positive reaction came in an authoritative two-column editorial in Neues Deutschland, written by Rudi Singer, the party paper's chief editor.

He said Wednesday's public appeal by Chancellor Kurt Georg Kiesinger and an open letter by the executive of the West German Social Democrats, sent to East Berlin by courier Thursday, would be submitted to delegates of the seventh East German party congress that opens Monday.

The editor declared that Kiesinger's 16-point program for improvements in human relations and in cultural and economic areas should have been addressed directly to the East German government, instead of to the congress of the socialist unity (Communist) party, known in Germany by its initials S.E.D., to which the social Democrats also sent their letter.

The editor also deplored that Kiesinger had not referred to the country as the German Democratic Republic.

"If the West German government would like to settle official business with our republic, then it must apply to the chairman of the council of ministers of the German Democratic Republic," the editorial said.

Nevertheless it said the Communists were considering "opening a public dialogue with the chancellor's West German Christian Democratic Union."

Bonn has so far refused to have direct dealings with Walter Ulbricht, the party chief and head of state, or with Premier Willi Stoph, the chairman of the council of ministers. However, in recent weeks government officials have indicated Bonn would no longer exclude high-level talks, possibly on a ministerial level, provided they led to practical results.

In yesterday's comment the editor insisted Bonn must renounce its claim to sole legal representation of all Germans and must agree to government negotiations based on equality of status.

But he did not call for full-scale diplomatic recognition by Bonn, as in the deleted editorial or as frequently demanded by East German leaders. Moreover, while the original editorial abused Kiesinger for having issued "foamy peace talk," Singer carefully avoided all personal attack.

King's Vietnam Stand Damages Rights Image

By GENE ROBERTS

(c) N.Y. Times News Service

ATLANTA—The outspoken stand of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. on the war in Vietnam has dampened his prospects for becoming the Negro leader who might be able to get the nation "moving again" on civil rights.

He now seems further removed than at any point in his career from leaders of the political establishment, the Urban League and the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People and also from the mass of voters. He needs the support of all these groups to win new gains for the Negro.

At the same time, King's attacks on the war appear to have won him only superficial support from young Negro militants who had fought his approach on civil rights issues too conventional for their taste.

Ironically, King seems to have joined in the attack on the war, at least in part, because he thought it would help rather than hurt the civil rights efforts.

In recent months, as the civil rights movement became increasingly fragmented and directionless, he convinced himself that the nation was incapable of dealing simultaneously with two major issues.

Thus, he reasoned, he would have to grapple with the war issue and help bring it to a satisfactory conclusion before he could make new headway on civil rights.

But in speaking out against the war, he has had to sacrifice his middle ground position among civil rights leaders. And it was precisely this position that had made King appear so invaluable to those who had hoped they could build a new civil rights coalition around him.

When the civil rights movement flew apart last year over the "black power" issue, King stuck to the middle road by deploring black power but refusing to join the Urban League and the N.A.A.C.P. in denouncing such black power adherents as the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee and the Congress of Racial Equality.

Instead of denouncing the two organizations, King simply said he would not appear on the same platform with leaders of the two organizations as long as they were espousing what might be interpreted as an "antiwhite" position.

Without King by their sides, as he was in the civil rights march through Mississippi last summer, the black power organizations found it increasingly difficult to get funds and publicity.

Early this year, many civil rights supporters thought the "folly" of black power had been amply demonstrated and that the climate was now ripe for King to lead militants and moderates back into a new civil rights coalition.

But then, King began his bitter denunciation of the war and almost immediately the hopes for a new coalition evaporated. For in attacking the war, King automatically aligned himself with the black power wing of the civil rights movement, which had long preached against the war, and cut himself adrift from the moderate wing of the movement.

On Saturday, for example, Dr. King will find himself doing what he once said he would not do. He will be speaking (at an anti-Vietnam rally in New York) from the same platform with such black power leaders as Stokely Carmichael of the student committee and Floyd B. McKissick of CORE.

This alone would be enough to disturb the more conservative leaders of the Urban League and the N.A.A.C.P. But they are even more concerned that the public will interpret King's statements on the war as being a fusion between civil rights and the peace movement and that this will accelerate what already seems to be growing popular disinterest in civil rights causes.

The N.A.A.C.P. voiced its fear in a public statement in which it called King's stand a "serious tactical mistake." And Dr. Ralph J. Durbine, a member of the N.A.A.C.P.'s board of directors, expanded on the statement Wednesday.

"In my view, Dr. King should positively and publicly give up one role or the other," Bunche said. "The two efforts have too little in common."

King immediately replied that it was possible for him to speak out as an individual without fusing civil rights and Vietnam protests.

There was a period of several months last year in which King thought he had found just the sort of goal—a guaranteed income for Negroes—that would once again get the civil rights movement working together in harmony.

However, after several weeks of meditation and book writing in Jamaica earlier this year, he decided upon an all-out attack on the war.

While he is attacking, it is clear, an already weak civil rights movement is growing weaker, and an already disinterested public is growing increasingly disinterested.

Mead Calls for Abolishing Econ. Opportunity Council

Warren County Commissioner Blain M. Mead Thursday called for a full federal investigation of the local "war on poverty."

"An examination of the books," Mead said, "indicates that it cost the taxpayers about 66 cents to give away a dollar in federal funds, and as far as I can see, little or none of the $56,739.52 spent on this project so far has benefited the poor by so much as an extra slice of bread."

Mead was referring to the Warren-Forest Counties Economic Opportunity Council which began operations in January of 1966.

"The $57,000," Mead said, "represents what was spent by the Council in the first 13 months of its life. I know the county's share in this was small—about $1,000 in cash and office space, light and heat—but at this time when most of us are preparing federal income tax returns, I can't help but think that everyone's tax bill might have been a little lighter if groups like this one had never been born."

Mead pointed to the administrative expense as the outstanding example of waste.

"This committee, which was headed at the outset by Commissioner D. H. Lay, who has since resigned, has spent $23,699.80 on salaries, office expense and other administrative costs to give away $33,039.72 to two school districts. This makes no sense to me."

"Some of the details of this spending also are interesting," Mead added. "I note the salary paid to Robert Hockenberry, the executive director, from the time he joined the poverty group until he resigned in mid-September of 1966. He was paid $5,869.53 for that period, plus $574.90 in travel expenses. However, he was retained on the payroll at a rate of $30 a day after his resignation and eventually took another $630 in wages."

"I also see that an assistant director, William J. Harrington Jr., was paid $500 a month for three months, plus another $184.54 in travel expenses; another assistant director, Curtis D. Furnish, got a like amount for June, July and August of last year, plus $150.55 for travel and that Richard Brown, the present director, drew $2,125.02 in salary for the period of December through February of this year, plus $394.59 in travel allowance."

"Another item I find interesting is $300 paid to Franklin Hoff for 'public relations' for a three-month period."

"The rest of the salaries," he said, "were on a scale similar to those cited above."

"The expense of running the office has been very high," the Republican commissioner noted.

"Insurance costs for hospitalization and other types of coverage for employees ran $753.94, plus an additional $316.86 paid for 'other insurance,'" he said.

"The phone bill was a whooper — $440.85, and another $15.06 in Western Union fees. The rental of office machines has been high, too. It totaled $842.74, and that does not include $397.79 paid out under 'office supplies,'" Mead declared.

"Now," he continued, "what about the actual 'benefits'? Well, the books show only two items: $9,056 paid to the Forest County School District and $23,983.72 paid to the Warren County School District, both, I understand, for 'Headstart' programs."

"What I can't understand is why it should take $23,000 in administrative fees to give away $33,000 which the federal government could just as well have handed to the school districts directly," the commissioner remarked, concluding:

"To me this is a shocking waste. Over to the east of us, the Alleghenia Community Action Corporation which handled the war on poverty in McKean, Elk, Potter and Cameron counties, was shut down by the federal O.E.O. after a year because it had failed to develop any programs while spending the same amount of money we have. If that is the case, then I think the O.E.O. ought to look into our set-up and I am communicating with them today suggesting this."

"So far as I can see, the only wounded in our local war on poverty have been the taxpayers—shot right through the pocketbooks!"

BEFORE HEALTH SOCIETY

Philadelphian To Speak Here

Perry S. MacNeal, M.D. of Philadelphia will be the main speaker at the annual dinner meeting of the Warren County Tuberculosis and Health Society on Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. in the Jackson Valley Country Club.

The Society has been sponsored locally for 41 years by the Warren Lions Club whose members serve as directors. Current president of the TB Society is Howard Dobson who will be succeeded by John Zavlinski.

Zavlinski will serve as toastmaster for the annual meeting which will be attended by about 100 men and women.

There Are Two Sides

(Editor's Note: Recognizing that there are usually two sides—at the least—in every controversial question, the Times-Mirror and Observer is carrying both a statement by county commissioner Blain Mead and a statement by Richard Brown of the Economic Opportunity Council. The issue stems from a motion made by Mead at a commissioners' meeting Thursday, by which he proposed to do away with the local antipoverty office).

NEWLY REORGANIZED

Citizens Committee Meets on Renewal

The Citizens Advisory Committee to the Warren Redevelopment Authority will meet Tuesday for the first time since it was reorganized last month, it was announced yesterday.

The group, which acts as both an aid and a check for the urban renewal program, meets at 8 p.m. in the Municipal Building.

The session will be public.

Part of the group's discussion will center around the building, housing, and plumbing codes now under the consideration of borough council. The codes, which council intends to pass at its May meeting, are necessary to the "workable program" the foundation for an urban renewal program.

Formed by federal mandate under the urban renewal program, such citizens committee recommends action to governmental bodies—such as borough council, the Redevelopment Authority, and planning commissions. At the same time members of the committee work on specific parts of the urban renewal program, such as helping displaced persons and businesses and strengthening neighborhood rehabilitation programs.

Under the committee are seven subcommittees. They are public information (headed by M. Thayne Sando), community planning (Richard M. McCarthy), neighborhood improvement (Mrs. Lee M. Schaefer), codes adoption and enforcement (Kenneth A. Holtz), home financing (E. R. Gustafson), relocation housing (John Hanna Jr.), and community action (Clyde Marshall).

The executive committee consists of the subcommittee chairmen, Plummer F. Collins (chairman), Marvin Wensel (vice chairman), Mrs. Joseph D. Lytle (secretary), Col. Henry C. Kerlin, and James H. Frantz.

Membership on the committee is open. Each subcommittee chairman will recruit three new members for the committee. They in turn will recruit three new members. The aim is to have the advisory committee diversified and representative of the community.

No Fishing

Dairy farmers in the northwestern corner of Venango County have posted NO TRIPS-PASSING signs on two of the county's most popular trout fishing streams. By putting a damper on opening day today, farmers hope to gain support from sportsmen's groups in their drive for a two-cent per quart milk price increase.

Econ. Opportunity Council Replies to Mead Statement

A review of figures is a most difficult, in fact virtually impossible, way to determine the total overall effectiveness of any given program. However, there is a story to be told about any program, and the local Economic Opportunity Council is no exception.

First, it appears evident that the overall purpose of the program has not been understood by some people in Warren County. This program is not designed to put a slice of bread on any person's table. That job belongs to the Department of Public Assistance, and we are not interested in competing with that agency. Nor is this program designed to give money (your tax dollars and mine) away. Instead, quite the contrary is true. The program is designed to give those who suffer the deprivation of low income an opportunity, which is not available to them from any other source, to break the chains of circumstances and lack of opportunities which surround them.

Today, supermarkets are so thoroughly American, millions use them every week. Usually one trip—sometimes with the whole family—takes care of the entire week's food shopping. Yet millions of Americans don't buy their groceries once a week in handsomely designed supermarkets. They use stores and markets in their own neighborhood every day. It probably costs them more. But they have logical reasons. To shop only once a week, a housewife needs a refrigerator, a week's supply of grocery money and, usually, a car. And 34 million Americans—the hard core poor—don't always have these needs. When you are poor in America you learn not to expect too much.

This program does cost money. But the end results of allowing people to become self-sufficient, tax-paying citizens is indeed worthy of serious consideration. Today's poor are conditioned by generations of deprivation. They—and their parents before them—have never been encouraged to expect many of the economy's blessings. Interestingly, the national Republican party leaders are not asking that the attack on poverty be stopped. Quite the contrary is true. They want it enlarged—which means more tax dollars poured into the program. Their primary goal is to have the whole program renamed "The Opportunity Crusade." Whether we term it a "War" or a "Crusade," community action is a "community project," Sargent Shriver recently asserted: "We have gotten everybody in the community—labor, business, religious leadership, political leadership—together so what we have now is a people's war, everybody's war, to help the poor." Six out of every 10 Americans either want the war on poverty expanded or continued at its present level, according to a poll conducted by Louis Harris.

Mr. Mead's quarrel with the expenditure of money under the local OEO program resolves itself to $23,000 of administrative costs for 13 months of operation. Any good businessman would be happy to make a $1,000 investment to get a $58,000 return. One thousand eight hundred dollars per month to operate an administrative office is indeed economy. Mr. Mead chose to overlook the fact that the local economy has been benefited by this money being circulated in the Warren areas. The local businessmen have not overlooked that fact, however.

It is too early to evaluate a new program interested in getting facts to better the conditions of poor people. This local OEO office is at present directing the paid employment of 32 high school students from poverty rated families in Warren and Forest Counties, and will do so through June 10 of this year. Mr. Mead did not mention this benefit to the poor. It will dump approximately $5,000 into the pockets of children from low income families. Mr. Mead's ill-informed news release coincides with many of his views on other subjects.

Prowler's Support Vanishes

ERIE—A prowler was arrested early Thursday at an east-side Erie home after the ladder on which he was climbing to a second-story bedroom was kicked from under him.

Larry Potter, 20, charged with loitering and prowling at night, was committed to county jail in lieu of bond when arraigned before Alderman Larry Fabrizio.

City police said that James Kiehlmeier, of 926 E. 27th st., alerted police about 1 a.m. Thursday when noises were heard outside his home.

Checking the noises Kiehlmeier found a man climbing a ladder that was extended toward the second-story bedroom window where his daughter was asleep.

Kiehlmeier kicked the ladder from beneath the man who was then detained by Kiehlmeier and his two sons until police arrived.

Kiehlmeier brought a knife with a three-inch blade to police headquarters later Thursday morning which he said he found in his yard below the window.

Town Crier

... By Les Rickey

Throughout industrial history, men with little or no background in any given field have gained fame and fortune overnight by finding a new way of doing things or by inventing gadgets to do it for them.

I'm sure that there are such people among us today, unaware of their potential for changing the technical face of our society. I'd like to call upon them to join me in a massive movement to put this untapped resource to work for the good of humanity.

Tinkerers, Unincorporated, has been born. Dedicated to the never-ending quest for the betterment of man, this organization is made up entirely of people who get laughed at. The byword of the group is, "Remember, they laughed at the Wright Brothers, too."

The organization has no regular meetings and no dues. There are no membership cards. We have no lapel buttons. Save for in our hearts and minds, we do not exist as an organization.

But you can find our members on benches in the public parks, standing on street corners, lying in the shade of a favorite tree, loitering along the river bank, or just sitting in the living room—all engaged in productive inactivity.

To the public and to our wives, we are lazy crackpots. But remember, they laughed at the Wright Brothers, too. I've got this great idea for a broom cleaner that uses...

A SUMMER FESTIVAL is now being planned by St. Joseph's Parent Teacher Unit and scheduled for June 2nd, 3rd and 4th. It seems a long way off but it isn't, such an affair to be successful needs dedicated workers laboring for the 'cause' far ahead of the actual event. Well, such workers as the following, named as chairmen, are already busy as beavers taking care of their allotted tasks in the areas assigned to them: General co-chairmen, George O'Dea and Richard Curren; tickets, Janice and James Simmons; publicity, Mary Jane Ayers and Jane Julian; personnel, Alice Harlan and Mary Millard; booth construction, Richard Sharp; booths, Sandy Fadale; games, Patricia O'Dea, Monica Wilson, Genevieve Clark, and Roseclaire Curren; food, Harry Wilson, Jack Clark, Loretta Hunter and Helen Giotz; treasurer, Robert Haben. Meetings are scheduled for each Wednesday night at 7 o'clock in the social rooms of St. Joseph School. There ALL MEMBERS of the PTU are urged to meet, to help with the project, every Wednesday if possible at 7 p.m.

Ann Landers

Answers Your Problems

DEAR ANN LANDERS: When I started to date I wouldn't consider going with anyone who wasn't at least five feet ten, well-built and handsome. I made fun of the boys who were a little too fat or a little too thin. If a fellow's nose was too big or his teeth weren't straight, he was automatically off my list. A boy's clothes were important, too. If he didn't look like a fashion model I wouldn't consider being seen with him. My mother warned me that I was making a big mistake, but I wouldn't listen. I made fun of her, too. Guess what happened? I married the best looking, best-dressed fellow in town. All the girls were green with envy. Our wedding pictures were great.

We now have five children. My handsome, well-dressed husband never takes me anywhere, not even to church. I haven't eaten in a restaurant for three years. He prefers to go places alone.

I am disgusted and fed up, but I am determined to keep our marriage together. This rotten husband happens to be a good father.

Please warn the girls out there in Dateland not to pass up the short, homely fellows. I'm sorry I didn't have sense enough to grab one for myself. — SUSAN

DEAR SUSAN: You're so right. Marrying for looks is a lot like buying wax fruit. You can starve to death looking at it.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Our son is having a fifth birthday party in a few weeks. The problem is that the mothers always bring their children and sit around as if the party were for them.

I know from experience that young children behave much better when their mothers are not around. Our home is very small and it would be so much easier for me if the mothers didn't come.

If I come right out and tell them how I feel, will they be angry and perhaps retaliate by not allowing their children to come? What shall I do? — J.B.B.

DEAR J.B.B.: Be frank. When you speak to a mother ask her to drop her child and leave him in your care. And you can sweeten the situation by arranging to take the children home when the party is over.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I am an 18-year-old girl who is in love with the most wonderful guy on earth. I know he is the man I am going to marry.

The problem is his mother. I've worked like a dog to get on her right side but she hates me.

Three months ago he dropped me to please her, but we got back together again. His mother doesn't know we are dating and he can't bring himself to tell her.

My boy friend is 20 and I think it is crummy that we have to sneak around behind his mother's back. Tell me what to do. — INVISIBLE INK

DEAR INK: Stop seeing this fellow. If he doesn't have the courage to tell his mother he is dating you, he will never find the courage to marry you.

Go with others and tell him he is free to do the same. If he loves you he will come back. And if he does come back, make sure his mother knows about it or you'll waste some mighty precious years.

Pleasant Township PTA To Meet

The Pleasant Township PTA will meet this coming Monday, April 17, with classroom visitation at 7:30 and the meeting at 8.

The program will be "The Beauty School" with Mrs. Crawford, supervisor of the school, speaking and demonstrating hair styling. Students from the school will be Linda Scalise and Cathy Jackson, and the following PTA members will be models: Mrs. Glenn Cosby, Mrs. Tom Yeagle, Mrs. John Prego and Mrs. Eyvert Nyberg.

All members and friends are invited to attend.

Philomel Celebrates Jubilee

Eighty-one members assembled on Wednesday to observe the Diamond Jubilee anniversary of the Philomel Club of Warren. Memorabilia on display in the parlors of the Woman's Club called attention to the seventy-five years accumulation of Philomel Club year books, programs, and pictures. The past presidents supervised the gathering of the items on display.

Mrs. Neil Culbertson was hostess chairman and her committee included Mrs. Glenn Werner, Mrs. J. B. Leidig, Mrs. W. B. Africa, Mrs. Joseph McAmbly, Mrs. Ervyn Branch, Mrs. Lynn Branch, Miss Rose Maybank, Mrs. Robert Trusler, and Mrs. John Simonsen.

Tables for the one o'clock spring luncheon in the auditorium featured arrangements of white carnations and gypsophila topped with numerous black cardboard 75's, sprinkled with simulated diamonds. Musical notes of cardboard, also sprinkled with simulated diamonds, were placed intermittently on the tables.

When the candles were lighted on a large birthday cake in the center of the room, the assembled group joined in singing "Happy Birthday." Cupcakes with lighted candles and ice cream formed the dessert.

Mrs. Carl Lundahl and Mrs. Joseph DeFrees, the only past presidents to attend, were recipients of white carnation corsages, gifts of the club.

Officers and executive committees occupied places of honor at a special table. After luncheon, Mrs. James Potter, president, prefaced the business meeting by extending a welcome to all present and expressing gratitude for her cymbidium orchid corsage as well as the whole-hearted cooperation of officers and committees during the year.

Mrs. Potter paid tribute to Miss May McDermott, a recently deceased member, in whose memory the Philomel Club has placed a book in the library. The nominating committee, Mrs. James Torrance, chairman, Mrs. Carl Lundahl, and Mrs. Joseph DeFrees, accom-

Golden Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Nelson of Ridgway celebrated their golden wedding anniversary on Saturday, April 8, in Fellowship Hall of Trinity Methodist Church, Ridgway. Decorations were carried out in white wedding bells with a golden "50" attached, and several bouquets of flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson are natives of Warren County and Mrs. Nelson will be remembered as Agnes Hallberg of Irvine. Mr. Nelson is from the Chancellors Valley area. The couple moved to Ridgway in 1921 where Mr. Nelson taught in the junior high school, and later became principal of senior high, and, in 1935 was elected superintendent of the

Is your present heat for the birds?

1 ☐ Our birds go south
2 ☐ I don't know what happens to my heat once it goes up the chimney
3 ☐ Yes

What does this look like to you?

1 ☐ A butterfly
2 ☐ An inkblot
3 ☐ The grimy spots above our registers—caused by our dirty old combustion furnace that scatters soot all over, and keeps my wife in a flap

What do you say when that dirty old combustion furnace goes on the blink in a blizzard?

1 ☐ Aw, shucks
2 ☐ CENSORED
3 ☐ Next year, by gad, we'll have electric heat!

If you scored more than zero, you're overdue for Total Comfort with

Flameless Electric Heat

It's the happy heat for happy endings! Because electric heat ends fuel loss (no more up-the-chimney waste).

Ends furnace soot and grime (cuts cleaning to a next-to-nothing chore).

Ends chilly floors, uneven heat (you may fancy 69 degrees, or 96, but your anatomy will never have to suffer both at once).

Ends drafts, unsettling furnace noises, and ends sneezes, too (the kind that come from dryness caused by open flame).

Another thing, with a thermostat in every room, you can dial a temperature to suit yourself. In short, electric heat lets you begin a life of Total Comfort, for your insulation will serve for electric whole-house air conditioning, too. Sooner or later you'll be wanting both, so why not have them installed together?

Total Comfort costs much less than you may think! The "magic" cent per kilowatt hour is already here for preferred users, and rates keep falling, as other fuel costs climb. Mail the coupon—and get the facts. No obligation whatsoever.

Household Hint

Hot buttered soup is delicious and appeals to the delicate palates of the very young. Creamy celery, green pea or tomato soup served with a pat of butter will likely bring cheers from the kiddies.

Miss Ruth Ackert, organist, will play as a prelude — "French Chaconne" — composed unknown and for the offertory — "Romance" by Greenfield. The choir, under the direction of Ray Mart, will sing the anthem, "We Praise Thee" by Johnston. Nursery care is furnished for small children during the Worship Service.

Monday, 8:45, The Loyalty Class will meet at the church. Hostesses Winnie Mack and Sue Eckert with the program in charge of the President, John Ebert.

Thursday, 7:45, W.S.W.S. will meet at the church. Program Leader — Beryl Brown, hostesses — Betty Johnson, Faye North and Odessa Croman.

Volunteers Attend Luncheon

Speaking at a luncheon of Girl Scout Volunteers at First Presbyterian Church, Miss Lois Harner, executive director of the Penn Lakes Girl Scout Council, stressed the value of the time given by adult volunteers in the service of Girl Scouting, calling them the people who can and do make things happen. She drew her inference from Nicholas Murray Butler's "I divide the world into three classes — the few who make things happen; the many who watch things happen; and the vast majority who have no idea of what happens!" and added "We need more people who make things happen."

Mrs. Alan Buerkle, retiring district chairman, presided at the luncheon. Mrs. John Briggs Erie, president of the Penn Lakes Council, announced the appointment of Mrs. Walter Jones as new district chairman succeeding Mrs. Buerkle. Also introduced were council board members from the Warren area. In addition to Mrs. Buerkle are Mrs. William Houston, Mrs. Walter Jones, Mrs. Gordon Kay, Mrs. John Robertson, and Mrs. John Urbaitis.

Membership pins in recognition of years in Scouting were presented by Mrs. Houston to the following: Five year awards Mrs. C.W. Anderson, Mrs. William Anderson, Mrs. Fred Bell, Mrs. John Bjorkquist, Mrs. Paul Bobelak, Mrs. Raymond Briggs, Mrs. Archie Brittain, Mrs. Kenneth Christensen, Mrs. Frank Donaldson, Mrs. Peter Dudick, Mrs. Gary

Ettinger, Mrs. Urno Gustafson, Mrs. Thomas Herron, Mrs. Gerald Johnson, Mrs. Heinz Kuhs, Mrs. John McInturff. Also, Mrs. David Olson, Mrs. Eugene O'Neill, Mrs. Frank Payne Sr., Mrs. Douglas Peterson, Mrs. Donald Rudolph, Mrs. Victor Schnell, Mrs. James Schreckengost, Mrs. Marvin Thorpe, Mrs. John White, Mrs. Joseph Yucha, Mrs. Steve Zock, Ten Year Awards, Mrs. Robert Anderson, Mrs. Alan Buerkle, Mrs. Chann Ellberg, Mrs. Joseph Howard, Mrs. Walter Jones, Mrs. Norman Olson, Mrs. John Robertson, Mrs. Robert Sandblade, Mrs. Robert

Swanson, Mrs. Robert Sweetland, Mrs. Carl Tracy; Fifteen Year Awards, Mrs. William Arnold, Mrs. Clair Chipps, Mrs. James King, Miss Sharon Sickler, Mrs. Kenneth Sickler, Mrs. John Urbaitis; Twenty Year Award, Mrs. Donald Blair; Twenty-five Year Award, Miss Evelyn Boyd.

Mrs. Lyle Schuler, among the first adult volunteers in Girl Scouting in Warren County, was presented a Certificate of Recognition for her many years of service to the local organization. Mrs. John Robertson made the presentation. The delicious luncheon was catered by women of the church under the leadership of Mrs. Vance Weld. Other arrangements were handled by the following persons: Reservations, Mrs. Walter Jones and Mrs. C.W. Anderson; table decorations, Mrs. Joseph Howard; publicity, Mrs. Donald Rudolph.

Find the Strength to Worship Together

Able To Save The Uttermost

By Rev. Richard Meier
Seventh-day Adventist Church
614 Fourth Avenue, Warren

"Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them." Hebrews 7:25.

"I'm too great a sinner," one person says. "I've gone too far. God can't do anything to help a person like me." "I've tried to do right and failed," laments another. "There's no use of my trying again. People would only laugh." "I want to be a Christian," sighs another, "but I'm too weak. I'd never be able to give up some of my bad habits."

The Bible has an answer for such fallacious reasoning. Paul declares of Christ that "he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him." Hebrews 7:25. Here is help. Here is hope. Thank God, He is able. Here are three blessed words of promise. Here are three victorious words of great power. Here are three words of triumph to dispel the most dismal doubts. You and I may not be able to help ourselves, but, praise the Lord, He is able.

Can He save a person who has gone to the very depths of sin? To this there is the unhesitating assurance—"Yes, He is able. . . to the uttermost."

Can He supply strength to the poor vacillating person who has tried once and failed? The blessed assurance is straight from the Father's throne—"He is able. . . to the uttermost."

Is He able to break the cruel fetters of evil habit that have bound me all these years? Ringing down the corridor of time, directly from the courts of glory, comes the answer, God's answer: "He is able. . . to the uttermost."

There is no sinner too vile, no transgressor too degraded. Christ is able to lift, to save, and to cleanse you. There is no evil habit, no vice, from which He cannot free you.

None are so sinful that they cannot find strength, purity, and righteousness in Jesus. He bids them live and not die.

As you read the promises, remember they are the expression of unutterable love and pity. The great heart of Infinite Love is drawn toward the sinner with boundless compassion. "We have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins." Ephesians 1:7. Yes only believe that God is your helper. He wants to restore His moral image in you. As you draw near to Him, He will draw near to you with mercy and forgiveness.

The Ninety and Nine Were Safe; — But One!?

Warren Library to Sponsor 'Film Forum' For Observance

'Libraries and the Cultural Explosion' is the theme to be emphasized throughout Pennsylvania during National Library Week, April 16-22. The objectives are twofold: To spotlight the wealth of material available in libraries in support of interests in cultural activities, and to provide a public outlet for personal activities, and to provide a public outlet for personal activity in the arts.

The Warren Library Association, with the cooperation of several local organizations, is sponsoring FILM FORUM 1967 as its contribution to the statewide program of cultural festivals scheduled for National Library Week. Films will be shown at 12:15 Monday through Friday in the Hospitality Room of the Northwest Savings and Loan Association.

The Warren Art League will sponsor Monday's noontime showing of YANKEE PAINTER: THE WORK OF WINSLOW HOMER. This is a 26-minute, color film which traces the artistic development of Winslow Homer, presenting drawings, watercolors and oils to show the breadth of his interests.

On Tuesday, April 18, the Literature Department of The Woman's Club of Warren will present ROBERT FROST, a 28-minute color film in which the poet reads some of his poems as scenes of the Vermont countryside which inspired them are shown. This film will have wide appeal both as an introduction to poetry and for its scenes of the New England landscape during the change of seasons.

TRIO: RUBINSTEIN, HEIFETZ, AND PIATIGORSKY is the Philomel Club's presentation on Wednesday. A 26-minute film, this is an informal visit with the three master musicians, rehearsing at Rubin-stein's home, in which they chat and joke with one another between rehearsals of the Schubert B Flat Trio and the Mendelssohn / Minor Trio.

The Garden Club of Warren will sponsor Thursday's film ARRANGING FLOWERS IN YOUR HOME. Five basic designs of flower arrangements are presented in a clear, concise manner to help the beginner achieve experience in decorating the home with cut flowers in this 25-minute, color film.

On Friday, April 21, The Warren County Historical Society will present PITHOLE U.S.A., a 14-minute documentary film that breathes excitement into the roistering days of the oil industry. It shows life in Pit-hole City, Pennsylvania in the 1800's, and the birth and death in five hundred days of the oil industry's first and wildest boom town.

The variety of topics selected for FILM FORUM 1967 allows individuals to select subjects in which they are especially interested and attend only those film showings; or they may wish to attend each day and explore all the phases of culture being emphasized during the local National Library Week observance.

The public is invited to participate in FILM FORUM 1967. Persons attending may bring their lunches, and coffee will be served each noon through the courtesy of the Northwest Savings and Loan Association.

Beaty Bylines

By CATHY WERNER

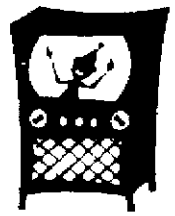

Monday morning assemblies were held for the 7th, 8th, and 9th grades for the purpose of voting upon the proposed Constitution for the Citizenship League. Included in the Constitution were articles concerning the powers and duties of the League officers, qualifications for candidacy for office, and the basic committee in the League, such as the International Relations committee. The Constitution was ratified by the necessary two-third majority of the student body.

The Beaty Spring Show "Music Americana" was a smashing success, over 1,300 students playing to nearly a capacity crowd both Friday and Saturday evenings. The groups put on a terrific show. Special congratulations should go to the students who participated and of course to their excellent directors, Mr. West, Mr. Fawcett, and Mr. Williams.

Freshman Students at Beaty are currently filling out their high school schedules for next fall. Between numerous trips to the Guidance office and their respective teachers, most students seem to be getting their slightly less than earth-shaking problems out of the way.

On Friday, April 14, five students from Beaty will be attending the Junior District Band Festival at Northwestern Area High School in Albion, Pa. The lucky students going are Martin Kanovsky on French horn, Cathy Werner on flute, Randi Johnson on bassoon, Dave Mahan on trumpet, and Wendy Stoltz on the clarinet.

Chaplin's Girl, Geraldine, Tries to Look Like Tramp

By EDDY GILMORE
Associated Press Writer

LONDON (AP) — "I sincerely hope to be voted the world's worst-dressed woman this year," said Charlie Chaplin's daughter, Geraldine.

Don't hold your breath waiting for it, sister. You've got a real chance.

In a 1966 poll, Geraldine was voted one of the worst-dressers.

"I think I was No. 3 on the list," said the 22-year-old daughter of the great clown of the silent movies. "This year I hope to come first."

"Think what an honor it would be to be voted the worst-dressed woman in the world."

Clothes bore Geraldine.

"Every once in a while I do like to get dressed up — when I'm going out," she explained. "Otherwise, I prefer to go about as I do, which is to say, pretty scruffy."

"I like wearing odd socks, well-worn jeans and sweaters with holes in them."

In London playing a dramatic role opposite James Mason in "Stranger in the House", she slopes around between scenes in her first starring film role in a heavy sweater, jeans, woolly socks and hatless.

But the sweater seemed to have no holes. The jeans were worn, but far from threadbare.

The socks matched and the sandals actually looked new.

In addition to wanting to become the world's worst-dressed woman, what other ambitions has Geraldine Chaplin?

"My real ambition is to be a comedienne," she said. "It's the one thing I really want to do, but I never get any comic parts. So far, my roles have been all serious ones — all big dramas."

Geraldine set out in show business to be a ballet dancer.

"I was a bad dancer," she said. "I knew I wouldn't get to the top and I felt that a career in ballet involving, as it does, tremendous discipline, was not worth my while unless I was going to reach the top."

"Anyway, I felt ballet was too limited. Dancing involves purely physical movement whereas in acting one has more scope to express personality."

Is having a famous father an advantage or a disadvantage?

"It's a tremendous advantage," she replied. "I know there are some young people in show business with famous stars as their parents who claim they are at a terrible disadvantage."

"In my opinion, to talk like that is nonsense. I know the arguments, I think — too much is expected of one too early, is one. Another is that the public is inclined to say she got the star role because she has a great acting name, not a great ability."

"My answer to that is that one does have the advantage — but whether one retains it depends on you, just you. I believe anyone should be thankful for any advantage bestowed by life, whether it be a well-known name, good looks or some other physical advantage. And one should make the most of it."

She admits that she owes a lot more to dear old Dad than her Chaplin last name.

"Both my parents have been a tremendous influence on me," she said. "To have a happy home life as I had is the most important thing in the world."

"Some people in the entertainment world don't have too many moral standards, and you can get NOT to believe in marriage."

"But when I go home and see my parents in absolute bliss after 24 years of marriage — holding hands like a couple of teenagers — well, I find it tremendously reassuring."

Charlie also takes an interest in her acting.

"He gives me advice about acting. He's always telling me, 'Look for the truth,' and, of course, he's right. For example, in the film I'm making I have to play a couple of scenes in which I am very nasty."

"Daddy told me, 'While you're being nasty, tell yourself how pretty, nice and charming you are. Then you will come out understandably nasty. You will have the sympathy of the audience.' I tried it and it seemed to work."

Powell to Appear On Erie TV Show

The Rev. Don Powell, well known evangelist, will appear over television station WSEE in Erie at 12:30 p. m. Sunday. The program is the start of a weekly half-hour series by Rev. Powell.

Ban Remains

DUBLIN (AP)—The Most Rev. John C. McQuaid, Archbishop of Dublin, has reaffirmed his ban on Catholics attending Protestant Trinity College. The argument that English Catholics are allowed to attend Protestant universities had no bearing, he said, because at the moment they have no other choice.

"THE VIEW FROM EUROPE"

The change in attitudes of Europeans towards Americans, and the efforts of some Europeans to withdraw from the attachments formed with America during World War II, will be examined in an NBC News one-hour color special, "The View from Europe," tomorrow, April 16, on the NBC Television Network. NBC News correspondent The Abel (lower left) will be narrating; views of Willy Brandt, Minister of Foreign Affairs of Germany (top right); President Charles de Gaulle of France (lower right), and others will be explored.

By Lenore McIntyre, TV Editor WEEK'S PREVIEW

It isn't just the advent of spring that makes television seem so uninviting because our long and pleasant daylight saving time evenings are still ahead of us. It's the beginning of the repeat and re-run season which makes us loathe to turn on the set and fumble around for something different.

Sports dominate the special fare this weekend. There will be golf, hockey, and baseball to hold your attention Saturday afternoon (if you stay indoors) and Sunday finishes the Tournament of Champions golf special, and also offers the premiere of pro soccer games. If you happen to receive WJET-TV Ch. 24, out of Erie, you can catch the NBA playoff game. And on Wednesday night Ch. 35, WSEE-TV, carries a Pirates baseball game.

NBC repeats "The Investigation" Sunday afternoon (try this if you missed it Friday night) and at 6:30 offers a special called "The View From Europe." There's a Perry Como special on NBC Monday night and ABC has "Robert Scott and the Race for the South Pole."

CBS brings a New York Philharmonic Young People's Concert Wednesday evening and that's it for the week.

If you're on the Warren TV cable don't neglect Ch. 3. The idea of educational television scares many to another channel but here you will find different and unusual program fare not offered by commercial television. Get the Ch. 3 habit.

For instance, Monday night Net Journal takes a penetrating look at "The Smoking Spiral," a single day in five cities that focuses on the lives of two smokers, an American emphysema victim and an Englishman with chronic bronchitis.

Wednesday night Ch. 3 has its monthly "News in Perspective" program which features three New York Times newsmen, Max Frankel, Tom Wicker and Lester Markel, discussing such topics as President Johnson's Guam meeting, U.S. efforts toward pacification of the villages and recent build-ups in the war, plus other timely subjects.

A panel discussion on the problems of regional planning will be the topic for Pennsylvania Magazine on Thursday night. Friday night a new weekly news analysis program will begin. "Washington Week in Review" will present a weekly resume of what has been happening on the national beats.

There also are some good drama and music programs, a National Library Week special, and Bishop Pike discussing "Values for Survival."

AFTER AFTRA

Ratings for television programs affected by the AFTRA strike dropped during the hassle, networks suffered monetary losses from advertising accounts, taping and production schedules were delayed, and considerable unhappiness cropped up among members themselves.

In fact, now that the smoke has cleared several familiar figures still are among the missing. The last time I looked Dave Brinkley hadn't returned and Jimmy Dean was turning the Tonight Show into a facsimile of his own former western-country music program.

All kinds of rumors emanated from the strike and one indicated a permanent breakup in the Huntley-Brinkley team. Chet Huntley is said to have his eye on the U.S. Senate and Mike Mansfield, Senate Majority Leader from Montana, added fuel by announcing he didn't intend to stand for reelection and would like to see some fellow Montanan like Huntley take his seat. When questioned as to his political aspirations, Mr. Huntley parried but gave no direct answers.

Johnny Carson has charged NBC with breach of contract after quitting his $780,000 a year job as host of the Tonight Show. Carson says the network used repeats of the show during the strike without negotiating with him for fees due him. But Johnny and NBC have been having tiffs for some time and Carson has threatened to leave when his contract expired (April 1970). A more lucrative and less-wearing career in nightclubs and theaters awaits him and the AFTRA strike may be just the loophole he needed.

PEOPLE & PROGRAMS

EDWARD P. MORGAN, correspondent and commentator for ABC-TV and Radio, is rumored to become a featured newsmen on the upcoming National Educational Television Sunday night news program. More pay and professional challenge are said to be the enticements.

HERB ALPERT and the Tijuana Brass will star in their first full-hour all-music special on Monday night, April 24, on CBS-TV.

WE'LL TAKE MANHATTAN is an NBC special half-hour comedy about a Wyoming Indian who files a legal claim for ownership of Manhattan Island. It will be aired Sunday evening, April 30, and stars Dwayne Hickman, Ben Blue and Leslie Perkins.

NBC NEWS' "TODAY" takes an inquiring look at the birth control pill, what it is, how it works, and what it means to the user, on a one-hour late Sunday colorcast April 30 at 6:30 p.m. It is an elaboration on the early-morning Today special earlier this year but will consist mostly of new material.

THE CATHOLIC HOUR series of four programs offered by NBC Television Religious Programs Unit is titled "The Struggle" and starts Sunday, May 7. It will explore the collapse of earlier meanings and the struggle for realization of new ones. Titles of the programs and their dates are: "A Sense of Loss," May 7; "An Abundance of Perspectives," May 14; "A Father's Death," May 21; and "Rebirths of Hope?" May 28.

Your Horoscope

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars, FOR SATURDAY, APRIL 15, 1967.

ARIES (March 21 to April 20)—Some tidying up to do, possibly rearranging. Don't go off on a tangent or let distractions sidetrack you. Avoid fatigue but do not anticipate difficulty.

TAURUS (April 21 to May 21)—Whether your day calls for hard work, mild activity or just rest, do what you must with the realization that your planets promise a highly beneficial day. Enjoy it.

GEMINI (May 22 to June 21)—Much like Taurus. What you know you must do, attack with sufficient vigor but not too strenuously, and keep all activities in place and in proper tempo.

CANCER (June 22 to July 23)—Don't forget that things are not unmarketable just because they had not yet been accepted! Striving and faith will bring good results in time.

LEO (July 24 to August 23)—Note the questions others ask, where they place their trust. This is not so that you may follow, but to be guided in using your own powers of evaluating and consideration.

VIRGO (August 24 to September 23)—Be an early bird and go after that prize. There are choice winnings for the earnest trying. Mind whose toes are out so you do not step heedlessly.

LIBRA (September 24 to October 23)—Not everything will please you nor will you wish to fall in with all suggestions. Play safe so as not to create the wrong impression by opposing or withdrawing tactlessly: Day needs your wits.

Scorpio (October 24 to November 22)—Clerical and domestic work, "minding the store" in various ways may be THE stabilizers, even though a bit dull. Try! Not all work, not all play!

SAGITTARIUS (November 23 to December 21)—Give a good accounting, no matter what your tasks, and you will be surprised at the pleasing returns. Emphasize tact, impartiality, thoroughness.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 20)—If this past week did not develop as you desired, or some issues still remain unsolved, it just means you have a further job to do—and with your Sign's usual good-will and practicality!

AQUARIUS (January 21 to February 19)—Knowledgeable people continue to seek more learning, more information, better cooperation with forces seeking sound results. Surely YOU will be in this category!

PISCES (February 20 to March 20)—A tip-top period for achieving happiness through personal relationships. Make the most of it. You may have to revise plans a bit, so be ready, and don't let it worry you.

YOU BORN TODAY are lavish, charitable, hospitable, and hostile to offenders of truth and dignity. Big-hearted, yes, and big-spoken, too. In speech, do not be short, nor in action blunt, for you thus belie the real intent of your action. You do not go along with the apathetic crowd; are a born progressive. Guard your vital forces, your pulse; control all emotions, and your years will bring many friendships, diversified interests. Have patience with necessary "red tape," and emphasize your magnetic personality. Birthdate of: Leonardo da Vinci, famed Italian artist; Henry James, author.

How to Keep Well

By Dr. T. R. Van Dellen

(c) 1967 By The Chicago Tribune
FAT BY DEGREES

The cause of obesity varies from person to person. Today psychological factors are stressed but after all, most of us are bothered by some emotional problem. Feelings of insecurity, self-pity, and frustration are common and, in my experience, usually lead to a loss of appetite.

If the source is not psychological, what makes people overeat? Many come from or marry into a family where the plates are heaped high and criticism follows unless every morsel is consumed. As more and more weight is gained, the accumulated fat must be fed and any attempt to curtail the intake leaves the person hungry. Others put on weight during the inactivity associated with convalescence from an illness or fail to get back into shape after pregnancy.

As a rule, however, most "fatties" get that way by degrees. It becomes a habit to eat a little more of this or that and a gain of 1/2 pound every month or so is not disturbing. By the end of the year they are 5 or 6 pounds heavier and the next year, 10, and the next, 15. Suddenly their suit or girdle size is in the heavyweight class; the process has been so insidious they hardly notice it or it is blamed on middle age spread.

Gradual weight gain means that the individual is eating or drinking just a little more than he needs. The "little more" usually is sugar, fat, or alcohol. The remedy does not require a fancy diet, food supplements, 4-mile hikes daily, rowing machines, or appetite reducers. The best bet is to eat the same foods but less of them and to substitute low calorie items.

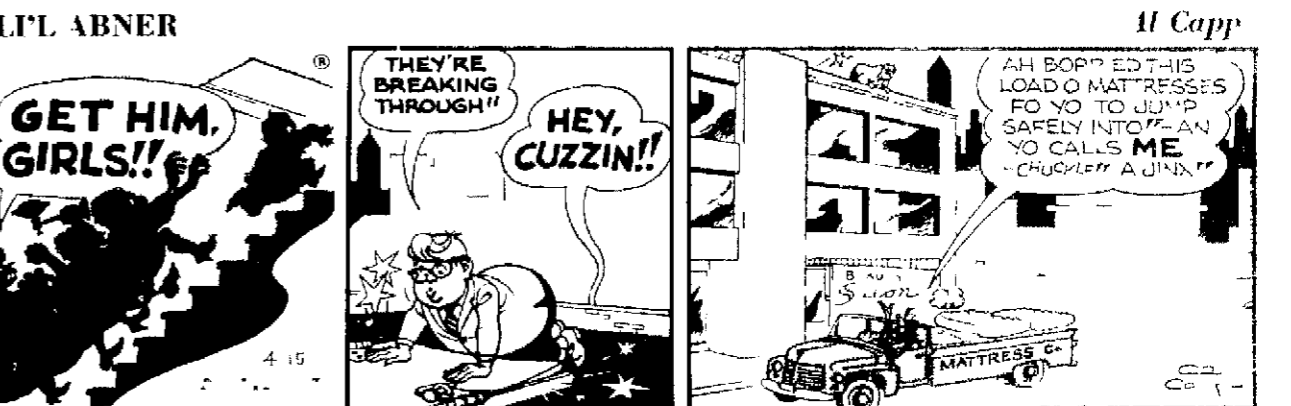

Another plan is to cut down on the "little" pound increasers such as the extra spoonful of sugar, the fat on meat, gravy, potatoes, and rich salad dressings.

By eliminating these extras, many individuals are able to keep in trim. The same can be said of cocktails which contain many more calories than the bread and potatoes so often passed up by the overweight.

Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.

STANDING WEAKNESS
Mrs. C. writes: What makes a woman feel weak when she stops to talk with someone on the street or in the grocery store?
REPLY
While carrying a large sack of groceries? Standing too long in one position makes some persons feel weak or faint because of the effect of gravity on the circulating fluids of the body. In nonscientific language, "The blood tends to leave the head and settle in the feet."
DIM VIEW
Mrs. T. B. A. writes: Why is it that the gall bladder does not always show up in X-rays?
REPLY
Before X-rays of the gall bladder are taken, the patient is given a dye, which passes like bile thru the liver and enters the gall bladder. If the gall bladder is normal or harbors stones, however, the dye does not reach it and the organ is not visualized under the X-ray.

JAY STONES
M. J. writes: What causes a stone to form in the gland in the jaw? I had one removed in the hospital and no another is forming.
REPLY
Infection in and about the opening is the usual cause. This leads to obstruction and as the trapped secretory becomes more concentrated it crystallizes and forms into stones.

Is Your Home For Sale?

THE DAY YOU LIST WITH US IT IS 86% SOLD A record like this is not achieved by listing a house, writing a small ad and waiting for the phone to ring.

Our exceptionally high record of sales is the results of planned advertising, continuing education of our representatives and a concerted effort on the part of our sales staff to effectively and efficiently "MERCHANDISE" your home.

If you plan to sell your home now or in the near future, be sure to call us first.
